THE COMMUNITY GATHERS BEFORE GOD

Inspired by the bold and boundless hospitality of Jesus, we are “open to all,” which means we welcome and accept all people into the life of our Church without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, age, economic status, political affiliation, physical or mental capacity, or religious belief. We believe that God’s call is given to all people, and we embrace the Spirit that continues to cross boundaries in order to unite the world.

Gluten-free communion wafers are available in the Narthex and at each Communion station.

The Silent Meditation

Joy unspeakable
is not silent,
it moans, hums, and bends
to the rhythm of a dancing universe.
It is a fractal of transcendent hope,
a hologram of God’s heart...

Joy unspeakable is a symphony of incongruities of faces aglow and hearts on fire and the wonder of surviving together.

Joy unspeakable
erupts when you least expect it, when the burden is greatest,
when the hope is gone...
it rises
on the crest of impossibility, it sways to the rhythm
of steadfast hearts, and celebrates
what we cannot see. – Barbara A. Holmes

The Call to Worship
Leader: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.

*The Procession and Opening of the Bible
“Hark! The Herald Angels Sing” Mendelssohn

*The Collect
Leader: Let us pray.
People: O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of true light:
grant that this same light enkindled in our hearts may shine forth in our lives. Amen.

Please stand in body or in spirit.
The Lighting of the Christ Candle

Leader: A trumpet blares through the silent night!
A new song heralds the coming light!

People: Let us sing the new song,
let us turn to the light,
let us build a new earth,
let us celebrate new life!

Leader: Let the sea’s deep rumble make the sky tremble!
Let the field’s high chanting make the clouds dance!

All: Let us sing the new song,
let us turn to the light,
let us build a new earth,
let us celebrate new life!

(Lighting the Christ Candle.)

People: (singing)

Angels, from the realms of glory, wing your flight o’er all the earth;
ye who sang creation’s story,
now proclaim Messiah’s birth:
come and worship, come and worship,
worship Christ, the newborn King!

THE PEOPLE CONFESS AND RECEIVE FORGIVENESS

The Kyrie Eleison

The Invitation to Silent Confession

The Prayer of Confession

God of Wonder,
We come into your presence confessing
we have lost sight of the wonder of creation.
We confess that on this eve when we celebrate the birth of Jesus, the frantic paces of our lives send us places far from thoughts of new life and new hope in the form of a child.
We confess that we have become hardened from the conflict we have experienced.
God of Grace, forgive our foolish ways.
Rekindle our faith. Renew our lives.
Reveal to us the possibilities of new beginnings.
Let the wonder and awe of this season turn our worlds upside down.
Amen.

The Welcome to Our Guests

THE WORD OF GOD IS PROCLAIMED AND HEARD

The Gospel Reading

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom God favors!” When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.”

The Solo

“O Holy Night”

Adolphe Adam (1803-1856)

O holy night, the stars are brightly shining,
it is the night of our dear Savior's birth;
long lay the world in sin and error pining
'til he appeared and the soul felt his worth.
A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices,
for yonder breaks a new and glorious morn;
fall on your knees, O hear the angel voices!
O night divine, O night when Christ was born!
O night, O holy night, O night divine!

Truly he taught us to love one another;
His law is love and his gospel is peace;
chains shall he break, for the slave is our brother,
and in his name all oppression shall cease, sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we;
let all within us praise his holy name!
fall on your knees, O hear the angel voices!
O night divine, O night when Christ was born!
O night, O holy night, O night divine!

Todd Geer, tenor

The Gospel Reading

Luke 1:46-55 (NRSV)

And Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name. His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation. He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts. He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever.”

Leader: For the Word of God in scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Anthem

“The Joy of Being Scattered”

The Chancel Choir

Neil Harmon (b. 1967)

On this day earth shall ring with the song children sing to the Lord, Christ our King, born on earth to save us; him the Father gave us.
Gloria in excelsis Deo!

His the doom, ours the mirth; when he came down to earth Bethlehem saw his birth; shepherds kneel before him, praise him and adore him.

God’s bright star, o’er his head, Wise Men three to him led; kneel they low by his bed, lay their gifts before him, praise him and adore him.

On this day angels sing; with their song earth shall ring, praising Christ, heaven’s King, born on earth to save us; peace and love he gave us.

THE SHARING OF THE BREAD AND CUP

All are welcome at this Table. It is open to all who seek to follow Jesus. There are no requirements of creed, denominational affiliation or age. Come, bring all the faith you have to this table of grace.

Gluten free Communion wafers are available in the Narthex and at each Communion station. You are invited to come forward to receive Communion. Two central stations will serve the center aisle. Side aisles will each be served at the front of your aisle. The balcony will be served in the balcony. Before returning to your seat, please deposit empty juice cups in one of the baskets.

If you prefer to receive Communion at your seat, please indicate by raising your hand so you may be served.

The Invitation to the Table

The Prayer of Thanksgiving
The Lord’s Prayer
Our God, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

The Words of Institution

The Sharing of the Bread and Cup

The Music at Communion

The Prayer after Communion
We give you thanks, O God, that you have come to us through Jesus the Christ, both in the midst of time and history, and in the timeless presence of Christ’s spirit as we receive the gifts of bread and wine. Send us out into the world rejoicing, enabled to share your love with all people we meet; through the grace of Jesus the Christ. Amen.

The Hebrew Scripture

Isaiah 9:2-7 (NRSV adapted)
The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness — on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Protector, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.

The Lighting of the Candles

*The Carol with Candlelight “Silent night, holy night!”

*Stille Nacht

Silent night, holy night! All is calm, all is bright, round yon Virgin mother and child, holy infant so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night! Shepherds quake at the sight, glories stream from heaven afar, heavenly hosts sing: Alleluia.
Christ the Savior is born, Christ the Savior is born.

Silent night, holy night! Son of God, love’s pure light radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

Silent night, holy night! Wondrous star, lend thy light;
with the angels let us sing, alleluia to our King;
Christ the Savior is born. Christ the Savior is born.
THE COMMUNITY IS SENT INTO THE WORLD FOR MINISTRY

THEOLOGY OF WORSHIP

Why do we worship?
Worship at Myers Park Baptist is the gathering of a diverse, intergenerational, ecumenical community of faith, celebrating God’s active and timeless presence in the world. In worship, God re-forms our hearts, minds and bodies, and ignites our imaginations with sacred stories—stories that invite us to question, explore mystery, express joy and grief, and deepen our faith. We worship to learn how to develop caring, empowering relationships with each other, and to stay centered in God as the world swirls around us. We worship to be inspired and prepared to exemplify the compassion and justice of Jesus in our church family and in the world. Through worship, God frees and transforms us in heart, mind and body, so we can make a difference within ourselves, in our relationships and in our community.

How do we worship?
Focusing on God, worship at Myers Park Baptist unfolds consistently with the Isaiah 6 scriptural model: praise, confession, pardon, calling to respond, commitment and sending out. All our worship services are built on this ancient structural form, regardless of worship style, venue or theme. Communal practices within worship — radical hospitality, confession and assurance of pardon, passing the peace, silence and listening, spirited hymn singing, presentations of gifts, and active participation in Communion—transform worshipers into newness with God and one another. Themes for services, based on lectionary scriptures, annually portray the narrative arc of God's redeeming love for humankind.

FEATURES

Our Stephen Ministry is Here for You
During the holidays, the stress of the season can bring back memories that are not always pleasant. Memories of many types of losses can cause diverse emotions, from sadness to anger. Unfortunately, our emotions sometimes take us places we do not want to go as we feel we are not in control of our lives. At times like this, a listening, nonjudgmental, confidential ear may be exactly what you need. Consider being matched with a Stephen Minister. We have 12 newly trained Stephen Ministers ready to help. If this sounds like something you might consider, please contact Joe Aldrich at jaldrich@myersparkbaptist.org or 704.334.7232 x 113.

Advent Podcast Series | Incarnate
This week Chrissy and Ben hit the fast-forward button to cover three chapters in one (45-minute-ish) episode. Chapters 4, 5, and 6 in Frost's book are full of sociological and theological gems that lead us down paths of conversation from labor movement to military training, to elbow learning. Doesn't that sound fun?! Visit www.myersparkbaptist.org for more info.

Midweek Meditation with the Pastor
Wednesdays | January 9, 16, 23, 30, February 6, and 13 | 11:30a
| Library
Inhale, exhale. Our lives rest in the balance of these two simple words. Even more, the act of breathing is filled with sacred significance. Come catch your breath at the all-campus Midweek Meditation launching Wednesdays in January from 11:30 until noon in the Library. Guided by the Rev. Ben Boswell with support from Lisa Cashion and Julie Marr of SoulStudio, this dedicated time will begin with a word, poem, or insight pertaining to mindfulness followed by peace, quiet, calm, clarity, and quite possibly, a transformed life. Register through myMPBC or by contacting Carol Cedar in the Church Office (ccedar@myersparkbaptist.org | 704.334.7232 x 100).

Awakening the Body Series | The Perfect Body
Wednesday, January 9 | 6:30-8:00p | Heaton Hall
How many of us made some kind of resolution this year to lose weight, to eat healthier, or to exercise? In this season of body-based resolutions and newfound commitments, we will learn about all of the external forces at work in our lives that put pressure on us to have bodies that look and function a certain way. From media to sexual and gender normativity, there are so many expectations on all of our bodies, it's hard to keep up! At this gathering we’ll name some of those stress-inducing forces in our lives and learn some spiritual practices that might help us cope under the societal pressure of perfection. Bethany Johnson will lead our discussion.

New Adult Faith Formation Class: Faith Development
Begins Sunday, January 6 | 9:45-10:45a | Room 250
This class is for those who want the opportunity to examine their personal faith system in community with others. The five-month discussion class will explore these main areas: 1) Developing a Personal Theology: which explores such questions as: Do you believe in God? What is the nature of a human's relationship to God? Who was Jesus? What is God's sense of power and control in the world? Why is there evil? What is grace? 2) How can the Bible be a faith resource? 3) The Spiritual Life: what is the value of silence and meditation? Why is corporate worship important? What can I expect to happen when I pray? How do I develop a faith journal? and 4) Missions: How do I act on my faith? The class is facilitated by Jon and Teddi Benson with some individual sessions led by the ministerial staff. For more information contact Jon Benson at jonathenson6@gmail.com.

New Adult Faith Formation Class: Doorways
Begins Sunday, January 13 | 9:45-10:45a | Shalom Conference Room
This group will go through doors, not into a place, not with right answers, but doorways for you to find a path that you want to investigate and come to know as your personal faith. It starts with exploring your sense - and the sense of others on this exploration with you - of the nature of God, then of the person of Jesus, including the writings and concepts of current theologians. Eventually, we will look at how you continue your "pathway" and where it might be leading you. Many Sundays we will face the truly unexpected and it will give us new space and freedom to see even Christianity in a new way. This class will be led by Beth Walters.

COMMUNITY

Hang Out With the Pastor
Monday, January 7 | 5:00 - 6:00p | The Common Market Southend
Hang Outs will continue into the new year on the first Monday of each month at 5:00 p.m. at a new location - The Common Market in SouthEnd. The address is 235 W. Tremont Avenue. Here are some things we want you to know: bring the family. Bring your appetite or just come and hang out! There is something for everyone. This is a casual way to find connection.

Our Whole Lives (OWL) Training
Thursday, January 24 - Saturday, January 26
You are invited to a training on the resource OWL (Our Whole Lives). This first series will cover ages kindergarten through high school seniors. We will offer training on the Adult Resource at a later date. Clergy from the UCC Church, the co-author of OWL, will be our facilitators. This comprehensive training will provide the information you will need to lead this class for our children and youth. And best of all, it is FREE. You must be able to commit to all three days. To learn more and to register, please contact Rev. Carrie Veal (cveal@myersparkbaptist.org)

Music Together Registration
Winter Session Runs January 9 - March 9
Wednesdays, 4:00p & 5:00p | Saturdays, 10:00a & 11:00a
Are you curious about what you can do to nurture the musical growth of your child, regardless of your own musical ability? Did you know that all children are musical? This is the essential Music Together® class for children from birth through age four. Each 45-minute class follows the recommendations of the latest child development research. Classes welcome a variety of ages to foster natural, family-style learning. As a member of MPBC, you receive a 50% discount on tuition for classes (at the MPBC location only). Tuition includes 9 weeks of classes, a CD, a beautifully illustrated family songbook, and access to the songs through the Hello, Everybody app. Questions? Contact Lucy Chapman at lucybelle22@gmail.com.

Parent Workshop: Children and Anxiety
Thursday, January 10 | 7:00-9:00p | Cornwell Conference Center
Dr. Michele Mannering will lead a parenting workshop discussing how anxiety and stress manifest in the behavior of young children. She will help parents gauge the spectrum of childhood worry and offer strategies to manage anxiety at home. This workshop, sponsored by Through-The-Week School and the Children's Ministry will give parents the chance to learn and connect. Childcare will be provided at no cost. To learn more and to sign up, please contact Rev. Carrie Veal.

YOUTH

Kanuga 2019 | January 18-20
Music, laughter, and snow! This January, youth in grades 6-12 will retreat to the Kanuga Conference Center in the North Carolina mountains. Join us for this wonderful weekend of fellowship and community as we share and learn together while having fun. We will have small and large group sessions with free time throughout. We leave Friday, January 18 and return on Sunday around noon. Sign up through myMPBC.

Apply for MPBC Scholarships Beginning January 1!
Giving scholarship funds to students at MPBC is one way that we are living into our calling as a community of God. It is our hope that through these gifts we are able to share with our college students while remaining connected, involved, and invested in their lives as they discover more fully who God has created them to be in this world. Details about the following scholarships can be found on our website at www.myersparkbaptist.org/forms: The Weathers Scholarship Fund and the Howard Webb Family Fund and a Scholarship given by a long-time member in honor of Betty Jo Hamrick.
Applications can be found online or by emailing Allen at adavis@myersparkbaptist.org. Applications are due by April 1.

An always-current calendar is available on our website, through myMPBC, and on the ChurchLife App (available on the app store). You may also access our online calendar on our website.
Our Covenant

We, the members of the Myers Park Baptist Church, are a people on a journey of faith. By God’s grace we are experiencing God’s love through Jesus Christ and in the community of the faithful. We are discovering in this experience our freedom to become new creatures and our responsibility to be faithful stewards of our lives and of this world.

We will be open to all new light, strengthened by God and each other in our faith. We will sustain a critical examination of Scripture, belief and ritual as interpreters of God’s active presence in the world. We will accept controversy as a reality of life together and an opportunity for growth toward maturity. We covenant to be a community of God’s new creation and affirm that we are open to all and closed to none.

We covenant to nurture this Church as a community of faith and as an instrument for reconciliation in this world: by worship, by Christian education, by the dedication of our personal and material resources and by all the other ways we express the significance of our lives with God and one another.

We covenant together to be priests celebrating God’s presence in community and in the world, believing we are participants in God’s kingdom on earth.
