THE WORSHIP OF GOD
THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST;
JOINING SUNDAY
9 November 2014 at Eleven o'clock in the morning

THE COMMUNITY GATHERS BEFORE GOD

The Music in Preparation for Worship is intended to draw the people from the outside world into the presence of God. You are invited to remain silent during this time.

Please silence your cell phone.

THE SILENT MEDITATION

Governor John Winthrop preached a sermon titled "A Model of Christian Charity" as his group of original European settlers prepared to go ashore in Massachusetts. Their new community would be, he said, "like a city upon a hill, and the eyes of the whole world will be upon us." In his time, "charity" did not mean only what one did to help the poor, but a style of living with generous spirit for the good of all. Those early faithful people shunned any sense of applause as a result of their charity, but neither did they hide their charitable acts. Inspiration resulting from community charity became as valuable as any monetary value it contained. Anonymous charity was impossible; they truly believed that the whole world, and certainly their neighbors, were watching.

THE RINGING OF THE ANGELUS BELL

THE OPENING VOLUNTARY

"Now Thank We All Our God"

*J.S. Bach/Fox
(1685-1750)*

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

At this time, everyone is invited to sign the friendship register found at the end of each pew. If you are our guest today, we welcome you especially and ask that you include your address, phone number, and email. If you are interested in learning more about our church, we invite you to note this on the register. Immediately following worship, everyone is invited to a reception in Heaton Hall to welcome our new members.

A MOMENT FOR STEWARDSHIP

Ed Williams

*THE OPENING SENTENCES

Psalm 95:6-7

Leader: Come, let us worship and bow down,

People: let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

Leader: The Lord is our God,

People: and we are the people of God's pasture.

The ringing of the Angelus Bell, a three-fold ringing of three, signifies the presence of the triune God; Creator, Christ and Holy Ghost. In ancient practice it was rung as a noonday prayer calling the whole community to prayers for peace.

We offer childcare during worship for children ages birth - fifth grade. Please see an usher who will assist your family.

Please join in reading or singing those parts of the service printed in bold.

+ Ushers will seat anyone waiting.

* When this symbol precedes an element of the service, stand if you are able.

*THE PROCESSION AND OPENING OF THE BIBLE
“Give thanks to our God”

Number 392
Lyons

*THE PRAYER OF INVOCATION

+ During the interlude, 3 and 4 year olds and TK/Kindergarten children will leave with their teachers. Preschoolers may be picked up in their classroom after worship. TK/K may be picked up in Room 213 after worship.

THE KYRIE ELEISON (Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.)

Jonathan Crutchfield

Ky - ri - e e - lei - son. Chris - te e - Lord, to me give mer - cy. Christ, to me give lei - son. Ky - ri - e e - lei - son.
mer - cy. Lord, to me give mer - cy.

Kyrie eleison – a prayer that predates Christian usage. The text actually is Greek in origin, not Latin.

THE CALL TO CONFESSION

THE SILENT CONFESSION

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O Holy One, we call to you and name you as eternal, ever-present, and boundless in your love for us. Yet there are times, O God, when we fail to recognize you and your love in the daily routines of our lives. Sometimes shame clenches tightly around our hearts, and we hide our true feelings. Sometimes fear makes us small, and we miss the chance to speak from our strength. Sometimes doubt invades our hopefulness, and we degrade our own wisdom.

Holy God, in the daily round from sunrise to sunset, remind us again of your holy presence, hovering near us and moving through us. Free us from shame and self-doubt. Help us to see you in the moment-by-moment possibilities to live honestly, to act courageously, and to speak from our wisdom. Amen.

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*THE CANTICLE (Glory to God in the highest.)

Glo - ri - a, glo - ri - a in ex - cel - sis De - o!
Glo - ri - a, glo - ri - a, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

The use of the Canticle gives the people of God a corporate way to sing our thanks to God for the gifts of forgiveness and grace.

*THE PASSING OF THE PEACE

Ancient words of greeting and forgiveness may be used when Passing the Peace to those around you, saying either: “The peace of God be with you” or “The peace of Christ be with you.” The response may be: “And also with you.”

The Passing of the Peace is an ancient tradition whereby followers of Christ would greet each other.

THE WORD OF GOD IS PROCLAIMED AND HEARD

THE PSALM

Psalm 78:1-7
(See page 6 in the order of worship.)

The Psalm and Gospel lessons today are from The Inclusive Bible, published by Rowman and Littlefield.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

Matthew 25:31-40

Leader: For the Word of God in scripture,
for the Word of God among us,
for the Word of God within us.

People: Thanks be to God.

+ As the interlude begins, children in grades 1-4 are invited to go through the door beside the Lectern to join adult teachers. Parents may pick up their children in the Cornwell Gym.

Psalm 78:1-7 (The Inclusive Bible - Adapted)

My people, hear my teaching;
listen to the words of my mouth!
I will open my mouth in parables,
I will utter things hidden from of old--
the things we have heard and known,
things our ancestors have told us.
We won't hide them from our children;
we will tell the next generation.

We'll tell them of your praiseworthy deeds, Yahweh
your power, and the wonders you have performed.
You set up statutes for our forebears,
and established the Law in Israel,
which you commanded our ancestors
to teach their children
so the next generation would know them-- children yet to be born--
and as they come up,
they would tell them their own children.
Then they would put their trust in you
and not forget your deeds,
but keep your commandments. . . .

Matthew 25:31-40 (The Inclusive Bible)

“At the appointed time the Promised One will come in glory, escorted by all the angels of heaven, and will sit upon the royal throne, with all the nations assembled below. Then the Promised One will separate them from one another, as a shepherd divides the sheep from the goats. The sheep will be placed on the right hand, the goats on the left.

“The ruler will say to those on the right, ‘Come you blessed of my Abba God! Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world! For I was hungry and you fed me; I was thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me; naked and you clothed me. I was ill and you comforted me; in prison and you came to visit me.’ Then these just will ask, ‘When did we see you hungry and feed you, or see you thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you as a stranger and invite you in, or clothe you in your nakedness? When did we see you ill or in prison and come to visit you?’ The ruler will answer them, ‘The truth is, every time you did this for the least of my sisters and brothers, you did it for me.’”

DRAW NEAR TO GOD

THE MYERS PARK BAPTIST CHURCH COVENANT

We, the members of the Myers Park Baptist Church, are a people on a journey of faith. By God's grace we are experiencing God's love through Jesus Christ and in the community of the faithful.

We are discovering in this experience our freedom to become new creatures and our responsibility to be faithful stewards of our lives and of this world.

We will be open to all new light, strengthened by God and each other in our faith.

We will sustain a critical examination of Scripture, belief and ritual as interpreters of God's active presence in the world.

We will accept controversy as a reality of life together and an opportunity for growth toward maturity.

We covenant to be a community of God's new creation and affirm that we are open to all and closed to none.

We covenant to nurture this church as a community of faith and as an instrument for reconciliation in this world: by worship, by Christian education, by the dedication of our personal and material resources and by all the other ways we express the significance of our lives with God and one another.

We covenant together to be priests celebrating God's presence in community and in the world, believing we are participants in God's kingdom on earth.
