The Seventh Sunday of Easter
Commitment Sunday

2 June 2019
THE COMMUNITY GATHERS BEFORE GOD

Inspired by the bold and boundless hospitality of Jesus, we are “open to all,” which means we welcome and accept all people into the life of our Church without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, age, economic status, political affiliation, physical or mental capacity, or religious belief. We believe that God’s call is given to all people, and we embrace the Spirit that continues to cross boundaries in order to unite the world.

The Silent Meditation

To be transformed
to turn yourself inside out like a glove
to spin like a planet
to thread yourself through yourself
so that each day penetrates each night
so that each word runs to the other side of truth
so that each verse comes out of itself
and gives off its own light
so that each face leaning on a hand sweats into the skin of the palm

So that this pen
changes into pure silence
I wanted to say into love

To fall off a horse
to smear your face with dust
to be blinded
to lift yourself
and allow yourself to be led like blind Saul to Damascus

The Invitation to Silent Confession

The Prayer of Confession

God of compassion and mercy, you told us to love one another.
Yet, we struggle to do so.
We have a hard time loving those who are not like us,
who disagree with us, or who ask us to face truths about ourselves.
You told us to love one another, because love is from you.
And yet we often do not love those we think are dirty, different, or undesirable.
It is written that perfect love casts out fear, and yet we are afraid.
Afraid for our comfort, our wallets, and how others perceive us.
Forgive us, God, and show us how to love the way you command us to love.
Release us from our judgment and our fear.
Open our hearts so that they might receive your perfect love for us,
and enable us to offer that love to all the world. Amen.

The Assurance of Pardon

*The Canticle (Glory to God in the highest.)

Glo-ri-a, glo-ri-a, in ex-cel-sis de-o!

Glo-ri-a, glo-ri-a, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia!

THE WORD OF GOD IS PROCLAIMED AND HEARD

The Gospel Reading

Acts 9:1-20 (NRSV adapted)

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if Saul found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?” He asked, “Who are you, Lord?” The reply came, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.” The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one.

Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank. Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias.” He answered, “Here I am, Lord.” The Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight.” But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name.” But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name.”

So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength. For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “He is the Son of God.”

Leader: For the Word of God in scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us.

People: Thanks be to God.

THEOLOGY OF WORSHIP

Why do we worship?
Worship at Myers Park Baptist is the gathering of a diverse, intergenerational, ecumenical community of faith, celebrating God’s active and timeless presence in the world. In worship, God re-forms our hearts, minds and bodies, and ignites our imaginations with sacred stories—stories that invite us to question, explore mystery, express joy and grief, and deepen our faith. We worship to learn how to develop caring, empowering relationships with each other, and to stay centered in God as the world swirls around us. We worship to be inspired and prepared to exemplify the compassion and justice of Jesus in our church family and in the world. Through worship, God frees and transforms us in heart, mind and body, so we can make a difference within ourselves, in our relationships and in our community.

How do we worship?
Focusing on God, worship at Myers Park Baptist unfolds consistently with the Isaiah 6 scriptural model: praise, confession, pardon, calling to respond, commitment and sending out. All our worship services are built on this ancient structural form, regardless of worship style, venue or theme. Communal practices within worship — radical hospitality, confession and assurance of pardon, passing the peace, silence and listening, spirited hymn singing, presentations of gifts, and active participation in Communion—transform worshipers into newness with God and one another. Themes for services, based on lectionary scriptures, annually portray the narrative arc of God’s redeeming love for humankind.

EMPOWER CHURCH

STEP UP

EMPOWER CHURCH: Can You Step Up Your Pledge?
Forever Forward in faith. Imagine the possibilities ... we aren’t merely raising funds; we are raising our faith and casting our nets far and wide with God’s vision.

If each Church family gave just $10 more each week, we would have over $400,000 for ministry and mission this year. Just $10 more each week is the cost of a coffee and muffin at Starbucks - an achievable goal for each family that will make a huge impact.

Remember, your pledge rolls over from year to year unless otherwise communicated to the Finance Office. This campaign is about stepping up our existing pledges, or perhaps making a pledge or giving to the church if you do not currently do so.

June 2 is Commitment Sunday - a time when we bring our pledge cards (even if you have an existing pledge) to worship. This is an act of worship, as we commit our financial resources in a way that honors God and provides for ministry at our Church. Please take a moment to pledge online, by email, or by completing a pledge card.

Celebrating Fran Morrison

Fran has spent her entire life as a member of Myers Park Baptist Church and has blessed us for 30 years with her ministry through worship, music, and friendship. On her final Sunday before her retirement, we will celebrate with a special worship service followed by a reception.

"Choral music is not one of life's frills. It's something that goes to the very heart of our humanity, our sense of community and our souls." - John Rutter

"Song is drama. It has an 'argument.' It has situation and story." - Robert Shaw

The instrumental and choral music as well as hymns for this service have been chosen with specific scriptures and texts in mind that have had special meaning to Fran and the choir over the years. The music and sermon will be woven around a Pentecostal theme of Ephesians 5:6-21. Instrumentalists will include a string quartet, jazz trio, and soloist Bethany Wherry.

Following worship, all are invited to a reception honoring Fran in Heaton Hall. (This will take the place of TalkBack.) We are collecting notes of appreciation and a love offering in the Church Office. We hope you will join us in expressing appreciation for our beloved minister and friend.

Awakening Shalom Podcast Series: Identity Crisis

Who are we? How are we communicating who we are? What does it mean to be Baptist? Do denominations even matter anymore? What's in a name?

This June, we are excited to roll out Identity Crisis: a 4-part podcast series exploring the ever-evolving identity of Myers Park Baptist Church and the "Church" at large. As a people on a journey of faith at the cutting-edge of movements embracing justice, inclusivity and greater diversity, we will examine our identity as we enter into deeper conversations about church clarity and religious branding in the 21st century. Beginning June 6 | Led by Rev. Ben Boswell, Senior Minister and Mia M. McClain, Associate Minister. Listen at myersparkbaptist.org/mpbc-podcasts.

OUR COVENANT

We, the members of the Myers Park Baptist Church, are a people on a journey of faith. By God’s grace we are experiencing God’s love through Jesus Christ and in the community of the faithful. We are discovering in this experience our freedom to become new creatures and our responsibility to be faithful stewards of our lives and of this world.

We will be open to all new light, strengthened by God and each other in our faith. We will sustain a critical examination of Scripture, belief and ritual as interpreters of God’s active presence in the world. We will accept controversy as a reality of life together and an opportunity for growth toward maturity. We covenant to be a community of God’s new creation and affirm that we are open to all and closed to none.

We covenant to nurture this Church as a community of faith and as an instrument for reconciliation in this world: by worship, by Christian education, by the dedication of our personal and material resources and by all the other ways we express the significance of our lives with God and one another.

We covenant together to be priests celebrating God’s presence in community and in the world, believing we are participants in God’s kingdom on earth.
